

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

JCP No. 08-17-90094

In re Complaint of John Doe¹

Before me is what purports to be a judicial complaint against the chief judge of this Circuit. In essence, however, the complaint alleges that the chief judge erred in dismissing the complaint that complainant had filed against a United States district judge, the remedy for which is a petition for review under Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States, Rule 18.

Accordingly, the proposed complaint is rejected and returned to the clerk of the court with directions to close it and refile it in the original complaint proceedings as a petition for review.

It is so ordered.

Roger L. Wollman, Circuit Judge
United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit

¹Under Rule 4(f)(1) of the Rules Governing Complaints of Judicial Misconduct and Disability of the Eighth Circuit, the names of the complainant and the judicial officer complained against are to remain confidential, except in special circumstances not here present.
