

Celebrating 100 years of the 19th Amendment

Carrie Chapman Catt
(1859–1947)

"Roll up your sleeves, set your mind to
making history,
and wage such a
fight for liberty
that the whole world will
respect our sex."

THE SUFFRAGE PROJECT

19

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
