"Give women more power in the government offices if the desire is for peace and prosperity."

Gertrude Bustill Mossell (1855–1948)
The 19: Suffrage Project

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The 19: Suffrage Project honors women like the one featured in this portrait.
