

Celebrating 100 years of the 19th Amendment

Josephine
St. Pierre Ruffin
(1842-1924)

"We are justified
in believing that the success of this movement
for equality of the sexes means more progress
toward equality of the races."

THE SUFFRAGE PROJECT

19

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
