Please allow sufficient time to pass through security and reach the court rooms on the Fifth Floor. The court suggests you arrive at least 30 minutes before your scheduled argument time.

Entrance Requirements for Presenting Oral Argument

Lawyers appearing for in-person oral argument must either be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 or present proof of a negative COVID-19 test taken within 72 hours of the date of the argument. To facilitate the effective administration of this requirement, all vaccinated lawyers must submit written proof of vaccination to the Clerk's office not later than 14 days before the argument date. Counsel relying on the submission of a negative test result must submit written proof of the result to the Clerk's Office not later than 48 hours before the argument date. Counsel may submit these proofs by submitting a PDF of their CDC COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card or a PDF of their negative test result through the CM-ECF event "COVID-19 Response." Lawyers may also fax either document to 314-244-2780. These documents will be sealed from public view.

Should your condition change at any time prior to the oral argument, please contact the Clerk's office immediately.

Check-in For Oral Argument

Counsel should report directly to their assigned court room for check-in. Do not report to the clerk's office for check-in. A deputy clerk will be stationed in the court room to complete your check-in for oral argument. Please be prepared to provide the deputy clerk with information regarding dividing time between opening and rebuttal if you are appellant and your desired time for a warning light if you are appellee. Counsel splitting oral argument time should be prepared to provide this information to the deputy clerk. If you are unfamiliar with the court's timing lights or court room procedures, please contact the clerk's office prior to the date of oral argument for additional information and assistance. All Clerk's office staff have been vaccinated and will be masked.

Courtroom Seating and Remote Access

Court room seating will be very limited because of social distancing. Only arguing counsel and no more than one other attendee whose presence is necessary to assist or supervise the arguing counsel are permitted to enter the courtroom. Only counsel admitted to the Eighth Circuit bar may sit at counsel table. While awaiting the call of your case, please take a seat in the lawyers' lounges or the seating provided in the lobbies adjacent to the court rooms. You will be called to the court room for your case. Counsel scheduled to present the first case of the day should proceed directly to the court room after check-in, take their seats at counsel table, and await the call of the docket.

Parties, interested counsel, members of the public, and the press will be seated in the court room as space permits. The public may access a live audio stream of the arguments through a teleconference bridge. Information on accessing the live audio stream is provided on the court's website at www.ca8.uscourts.gov. The court also provides digital audio recordings of all arguments under the "Oral Arguments" tab on the website. These recordings are posted shortly after completion of the day's argument sessions.

Presentation of Oral Argument

In the interests of public health and safety, all counsel and staff will be required to wear face masks and socially distance while in the court room. While presenting oral argument, counsel may, with the permission of the presiding judge, remove his or her face mask. Counsel should remain masked while seated at counsel table. When the argument in your case is completed, you must immediately leave the court room. The clerk will clean the court room between arguments and will provide a fresh microphone cover for each attorney presenting argument.

Please note - the presiding judge may provide additional instructions regarding safety protocols at the oral argument.

The court will provide water bottles at counsel tables, but you are also permitted to bring your own water bottle.

Other Matters

These procedures cannot cover every possible situation which might arise during the court session. Everyone's safety is our highest priority. We ask that you cooperate with any directions you receive from the Court Security Officers or Eighth Circuit staff. If you have any concerns, please feel free to contact the Deputy-in-Charge or her staff.

Please note: Procedures may change as a result of changes in community spread of COVID-19, additional guidance from the CDC, or directives from federal, state, and local governments. We will notify you of any changes regarding the procedures for the June oral arguments.
