

Notice

Eighth Circuit Implementation of Pay.Gov Effective August 1, 2016

The Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals announces that it will accept payment by credit card for the following fees utilizing Pay.Gov, the federal government's secure online payment system:

1. Attorney Admission Fee ($216)
2. Certificates of Good Standing ($18)
3. Costs for copies ($.50/page)
4. Certification of Documents ($11.00)
5. Oral Argument CD ($30.00)
6. Record Search ($30.00)
7. Archive Retrieval - Box 1 ($64.00), each Additional Box ($39.00)

You must be a registered user in CM/ECF to pay any fee or costs using a credit card. If you are not a registered user in this court's CM/ECF, go to www.pacer.gov/reg_ap.html to become a registered user.

To pay fees utilizing Pay.Gov, you must log into your CM/ECF account, click on Utilities, and select the type of fee you are seeking to pay. Read the instructions regarding the item for which you want to pay. Select Browse to download a PDF document with your request. Add a description. Click Pay Now and Submit. An instructions page for submitting your credit card information will follow.

Costs for filing fees may not be paid using Pay.Gov at this time. The court is also not accepting ACH payments at this time.

The court continues to accept payments by check or cash.