COMES NOW the State of Colorado and provides the following status report to the Special Master pursuant to the Case Management Plan.

This is the sixth status report from Colorado. The parties have held, and plan to continue, discussions regarding the search and production of electronically stored documents. Texas has noticed and conducted several depositions to date, several of which have been subject to requests for continuation based on the current stage of discovery. Texas has served written discovery requests upon New Mexico, to which New Mexico has served both objections and responses. New Mexico has served written discovery requests upon Texas, to which Texas has served objections. New Mexico has also served discovery requests upon Elephant Butte Irrigation District and El Paso County Water Improvement District No. 1. The United States has filed a motion for judgement on the pleadings regarding several of New Mexico's counterclaims. The State of Texas has filed a motion for declaration of legal issues previously decided, a motion in limine to exclude evidence, and a motion to strike or for partial judgement on New Mexico's counterclaims and affirmative defenses. New Mexico has filed a motion for partial judgment on matters previously decided. Colorado is currently evaluating these motions and may file responses.

Respectfully submitted this 4th day of January 2019,

FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
