

ATTACHMENT A

Witness Name	Agency/Organization	Category/Party	Topic of Testimony	Address	Will Call/May Call
Blair, Al	District or Consulting Engineer for El Paso County Water Improvement District No. 1 ("EPCWID")	Non-Retained Rebuttal Expert of United States and Texas; Percipient	Dr. Blair's expected testimony will include, without limitation, the subjects and issues raised, and matters and opinions discussed, in his disclosures and depositions, as well as responses at trial to evidence presented. The general nature of the testimony will also include facts and opinions from the perspective of his District Engineer positions with El Paso County Water Improvement District ("EPCWID"), including but not limited to the following: How EBID and EPCWID are allocated and receive water under the Project; the purpose and operations of EPCWID, and the locations of the Districts and their District facilities, historical and current water flows under the Project; operations under the Rio Grande Project; operations and water use within EPCWID; impacts of groundwater pumping on surface water allocations and diversions; impacts of pumping on aquifer recharge and groundwater budget; the interconnections between Rio Grande surface flow and groundwater; the utilization of surface and groundwater resources, agricultural practices and crop management, decreased water quality and increased salinity within EPCWID.	13247 Alameda Ave. Clint, TX 79836	Will
Cortez, Filiberto	U.S. Bureau of Reclamation	Percipient	Mr. Cortez was the Bureau of Reclamation's Rio Grande Project manager of the El Paso Field Division. Mr. Cortez's expected testimony will include, without limitation, the subjects and issues raised, and matters discussed, in his disclosures and depositions, including his designation as the United States' Rio Grande Project representative pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 30(b)(6) as well as responses at trial to evidence presented. The general nature of the testimony will also include facts from the perspective of his role as Project Engineer, including but not limited to the following: How Elephant Butte Irrigation District and the El Paso County Water Improvement District No. 1 are allocated and receive water under the Project, historical and current water flows under the Project; operations under the Rio Grande Project; operations and water use within the Districts; and impacts on surface water allocations and diversions due to depletions of Project supply.	10737 Gateway Blvd West Suite 350 El Paso, TX 79935	Will

Witness Name	Agency/Organization	Category/Party	Topic of Testimony	Address	Will Call/May Call
Estrada-Lopez, Michelle	U.S. Bureau of Reclamation	Percipient; Non-Retained Expert of United States	Ms. Estrada-Lopez is a Civil Engineer (Hydraulic/Hydrologic) employed by the Bureau of Reclamation. Ms. Estrada-Lopez is expected to testify as to her experience with operation and allocation analysis related to the Rio Grande Project. To the extent necessary, Ms. Estrada-Lopez may also serve as a rebuttal witness.	555 Broadway Ave NE Suite 100 Albuquerque, NM 87102	Will
Ferguson, Ian	District Engineer, El Paso County Water Improvement District #1	Non-Retained Expert of United States; Percipient	Dr. Ferguson is a Hydrologic Engineer with the Bureau of Reclamation's Technical Service Center, Water Resources Engineering and Management Group, in Denver, Colorado. Dr. Ferguson's expected testimony will include, without limitation, the subjects and issues raised, and matters and opinions discussed in his disclosures and depositions, as well as responses at trial to evidence presented. The general nature of the testimony includes facts and opinions relating to Rio Grande Project water supply and operations, including Project allocation and accounting; groundwater/surface-water interactions within and in the vicinity of the Project, including the impacts of groundwater pumping in New Mexico and Texas on Project deliveries; water demand and factors related to water demand below Elephant Butte Reservoir; and hydrogeologic modeling.	13247 Alameda Ave. Clint, TX 79836	Will
Finn, Billy	International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, United States Section (USIBWC)	Percipient	Mr. Finn is employed by the International Boundary and Water Commission as the Chief of the Water Accounting Division. If called, Mr. Finn is expected to testify as to his experience in the Water Accounting Division at the International Boundary and Water Commission. To the extent necessary, Mr. Finn may serve as a rebuttal witness.	4171 N. Mesa Street, Suite C-100, El Paso, Texas 79902-1441	May

Witness Name	Agency/Organization	Category/Party	Topic of Testimony	Address	Will Call/May Call
King, J. Phillip	EBID Hydrology Consultant	Non-Retained Expert of Texas and the United States; Percipient	Dr. King is a Hydrology Consultant for the Elephant Butte Irrigation District (EBID). Dr. King's expected testimony will include, without limitation, the subjects and issues raised, and matters and opinions discussed, in his disclosures and depositions, as well as responses at trial to evidence presented. The general nature of the testimony will also include facts and opinions from the perspective of his District Engineer position with EBID, including but not limited to the following: How EBID and the El Paso County Water Improvement District No. 1 are allocated and receive water under the Project; the purpose and operations of EBID, and the location of the District and District facilities, historical and current water flows under the Project; operations under the Rio Grande Project; operations and water use within EPCWID; impacts of groundwater pumping on surface water allocations and diversions; impacts of pumping on aquifer recharge and groundwater budget; the interconnections between Rio Grande surface flow and groundwater; the utilization of surface and groundwater resources, and agricultural practices and crop management.	530 S. Melendres Street Las Cruces, NM 88005	Will
Moran, Jean	Stetson Engineers, Inc.	Retained Expert of United States	Ms. Moran's expected testimony will include, without limitation, the subjects and issues raised, and matters and opinions discussed, in her disclosures and depositions, as well as responses at trial to evidence presented. The general nature of the testimony includes the subjects of surface water-groundwater interaction, hydrogeologic modeling, hydrologic modeling with respect to the lower Rio Grande including the Rio Grande Project area, and the impacts on Rio Grande flows from groundwater in Rincon and Mesilla Basins.	785 Grand Avenue, Ste. 202, Carlsbad, CA 92008	Will
Montes, Rosalba	International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, United States Section ("USIBWC")	Percipient	Ms. Montes is employed by the International Boundary and Water Commission as the Area Operations Manager for the Upper Rio Grande Project Field Office. If called, Ms. Montes is expected to testify as to her experience as the Area Operations Manager in the field office. To the extent necessary, Ms. Montes may serve as a rebuttal witness.	2616 W Paisano Drive El Paso, TX 79922	May

Witness Name	Agency/Organization	Category/Party	Topic of Testimony	Address	Will Call/May Call
Spener, Sally	International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, United States Section ("USIBWC")	Percipient	Ms. Spener is a Foreign Affairs Officer for the International Boundary and Water Commission. Ms. Spener is expected to provide background information about the United States International Boundary and Water Commission and the 1906 Convention Between the United States and Mexico Regarding the Equitable Distribution of the Water of the Rio Grande.	4171 N. Mesa Street, Suite C-100, El Paso, Texas 79902-1441	Will