Dear Special Master Melloy:

Paragraph 4 of the Special Master's Order dated June 4, 2021, requests that the parties advise you as to which of the pending motions filed prior to the entry of the order on summary judgment still need resolution. Please allow this letter to confirm that United States does not have any pending motions in need of resolution at this time. However, the United States reserves its right to challenge evidence through motions in limine, or at the trial itself, if appropriate.

Very truly yours,
