District of Arkansas.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: January 25, 2000

Filed: February 15, 2000

Before LOKEN, FAGG, and HANSEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

In this appeal following remand, J. D. Hill appeals from the district court's order dismissing Hill's 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action and denying his motion to amend the complaint to assert new claims. Following careful review of the record and the parties' briefs, we reject Hill's argument the district court abused its discretion in denying leave to amend the complaint. Having decided in an earlier appeal to this court that the sheriff and the other officers sued by Hill were entitled to qualified immunity, see Hill v. Johnson, 160 F.3d 469, 472 (8th Cir. 1998), the district court lacked the authority to grant the amendment sought by Hill. The district court's ruling is clearly correct and we affirm without further discussion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

We also deny Hill's motion to supplement the record on appeal.
