Before McMILLIAN and FAGG, Circuit Judges, and ROSENBAUM,* District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

Kathy L. Loeckle appeals the district court's adverse grant of summary judgment on Loeckle's disability and age-based employment discrimination lawsuit. Loeckle contends on appeal that the district court applied the wrong standard in determining Loeckle was an employee of State Farm Fire & Casualty Company and was not an employee of State Farm Automobile Insurance Company. Even assuming the district court did not apply the appropriate standard, we see no reversible error because the undisputed evidence presented at summary judgment establishes that Loeckle was an employee only of State Farm Fire & Casualty Company. Because the parties' materials show they are thoroughly familiar with the issues before the court, we also conclude that an extensive discussion is unnecessary. Having carefully reviewed the record and the parties' submissions, we believe the district court correctly granted summary judgment. We thus affirm without further discussion. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
