Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Western District of Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: May 30, 2001

Filed: June 4, 2001

Before HANSEN, BEAM, and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

The district court¹ committed Robert Camille to the Attorney General's custody, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4245, finding that he was suffering from a mental disease or defect for which he required care and treatment in a suitable facility. Camille appeals.

We are satisfied that the district court's findings are not clearly erroneous, see United States v. S.A., 129 F.3d 995, 1000 (8th Cir. 1997) (standard of review), cert.

¹The Honorable Ortrie D. Smith, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri, adopting the report and recommendations of the Honorable James C. England, United States Magistrate Judge for the Western District of Missouri.

denied, 118 S. Ct. 1200 (1998), as they are supported by the opinion of both the government's medical expert and Camille's medical expert, see United States v. Lewis, 929 F.2d 440, 442 (8th Cir. 1991) (per curiam); United States v. Steil, 916 F.2d 485, 488 (8th Cir. 1990).

Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court.

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.
