Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: December 23, 2003

Filed: January 5, 2004

Before WOLLMAN, FAGG, and MORRIS SHEPPARD ARNOLD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Delmus Romine appeals the district court's¹ decision upholding the Commissioner's denial of his application for disability insurance benefits after a hearing before an administrative law judge (ALJ), and after the Appeals Council denied review. Having reviewed the record, including the new evidence submitted to the Appeals Council, we find that the Commissioner's final decision is supported by substantial evidence on the record as a whole. See Cunningham v. Apfel, 222 F.3d 496, 500 (8th Cir. 2000). In particular, the ALJ gave appropriate weight to Romine's subjective complaints, made explicit findings regarding his residual functional capacity, considered his impairments in combination, and fully developed the record.

¹The Honorable Henry L. Jones, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas, to whom the case was referred for final disposition by consent of the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

Accordingly, the judgment is affirmed.
