Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern
District of Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: December 29, 2005

Filed: January 5, 2006

Before ARNOLD, FAGG, and SMITH, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Almost four years after Ronald L. Roberts pleaded guilty to four felonies and was sentenced, the government filed a substantial-assistance sentence-reduction motion under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35(b)(2). The district court¹ granted the government's motion and reduced Mr. Roberts's sentence to 97 months in prison and 3 years of supervised release. He appeals.

¹The Honorable E. Richard Webber, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri.

Having carefully reviewed the record and the parties' submissions on appeal, we find no merit to Mr. Roberts's claims that the district court committed plain error when resentencing him. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We deny the government's motion to dismiss this appeal.
