

Daniel Gossai appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment dismissing his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action against the Nebraska Attorney General and other Nebraska officials. Upon careful de novo review, see Robinette v. Jones, 476 F.3d 585, 588-90 (8th Cir. 2007), and for reasons stated by the district court, we affirm the dismissal with prejudice of Gossai's first through fifth claims, and the dismissal without prejudice of his sixth claim. We further hold that the district court did not abuse its discretion in partially denying Gossai's motion to amend the complaint. See United States ex rel. Joshi v. St. Luke's Hosp., Inc., 441 F.3d 552, 555, 557-59 (8th Cir.) (denial of motion to amend complaint reviewed for abuse of discretion; affirming denial of motion to amend on basis of futility where proposed amendments would not have eliminated complaint's deficiencies), cert. denied, 127 S. Ct. 189 (2006).

Accordingly, the judgment is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable Richard G. Kopf, United States District Judge for the District of Nebraska.
