

No. 07-1599

Appellees.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Filed: March 21, 2008

PER CURIAM.

Cynthia Herron appeals the district court's¹ Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) dismissal of her diversity action against Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal Life), seeking damages under Missouri law for breach of contract, tortious interference with a business expectancy, and breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, arising out of her role as a broker for Principal Life.² Having carefully reviewed the record and considered Herron's arguments, we find no basis for reversal. See Levy v. Ohl, 477 F.3d 988, 991 (8th Cir. 2007) (de novo standard of review of Rule 12(b)(6) dismissal); Bockelman v. MCI Worldcom, Inc., 403 F.3d 528, 531 (8th Cir. 2005) (de novo standard of review of district court's interpretation of state law). We also conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying Herron's motion to amend. See Wisdom v. First Midwest Bank of Poplar Bluff, 167 F.3d 402, 409 (8th Cir. 1999) (parties should not be allowed to amend complaint without showing how it could be amended to save meritless claim).

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable Scott O. Wright, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.

²Claims against other defendants were dismissed and are not at issue on appeal.
