Before WOLLMAN, SMITH, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Debra Lasseter, an African American, appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in her civil action alleging that, on account of her race, she was accused of shoplifting; was stopped, detained, questioned, and searched by police; and was banned from shopping at certain Dollar General Stores. After careful de novo review of the record, see Tusing v. Des Moines Indep. Cmty. Sch. Dist., 639 F.3d 507, 514 (8th Cir. 2011), we find no trialworthy issues on any of the claims that Lasseter raises. Accordingly, the judgment is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We deny the motion for sanctions.
