

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 20-2645

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Kristi Weaver

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Springfield

Submitted: March 18, 2021

Filed: March 23, 2021

[Unpublished]

Before KELLY, ERICKSON, and STRAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Kristi Weaver pleaded guilty to conspiring to distribute methamphetamine, 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A), 846, and possessing a firearm in furtherance of a drug-trafficking crime, 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A). As part of her plea agreement, she waived her right to appeal unless, as relevant here, her sentence exceeded the statutory maximum. The district court¹ imposed a total sentence of 181 months in prison, which included 121 months on the drug count and 60 months on the firearm count. Neither sentence exceeded the statutory maximum. See 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A); 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(A). In an Anders brief, Weaver’s counsel discusses the appeal waiver and the sentence, as well as requests permission to withdraw. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).

Upon careful review, we conclude that the waiver is both enforceable and applicable. See United States v. Scott, 627 F.3d 702, 704 (8th Cir. 2010) (reviewing this issue de novo); United States v. Andis, 333 F.3d 886, 889–92 (8th Cir. 2003) (en banc) (explaining that an appeal waiver will be enforced if the appeal falls within the scope of the waiver, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily entered into the plea agreement and the waiver, and enforcing the waiver would not result in a miscarriage of justice). We have also independently reviewed the record and conclude that no other non-frivolous issues exist. See Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75, 82–83 (1988). Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal and grant counsel permission to withdraw.²

¹The Honorable Stephen R. Bough, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.

²We continue to remind counsel that “Anders briefing must be done as an advocate” on behalf of the defendant, not the government. Evans v. Clarke, 868 F.2d 267, 268 (8th Cir. 1989) (internal quotation marks omitted); see Robinson v. Black, 812 F.2d 1084, 1086 (8th Cir. 1987).
