

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 23-2892

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Gina Denise Hendrix

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa - Eastern

Submitted: January 18, 2024

Filed: January 24, 2024

[Unpublished]

Before BENTON, KELLY, and STRAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Gina Hendrix received a 132-month sentence after she pleaded guilty to conspiring to distribute methamphetamine and possessing it with intent to distribute. See 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A), 846. An Anders brief suggests that the sentence is substantively unreasonable. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).

We conclude otherwise. See United States v. Feemster, 572 F.3d 455, 461 (8th Cir. 2009) (en banc) (reviewing the reasonableness of a sentence for an abuse of discretion). The record establishes that the district court¹ sufficiently considered the statutory sentencing factors, 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), and did not rely on an improper factor or commit a clear error of judgment. See United States v. McDaniels, 19 F.4th 1065, 1067 (8th Cir. 2021) (per curiam) (explaining that the district court has “wide latitude to weigh the relevant sentencing factors” and “weighing [them] differently than a defendant would have preferred does not alone justify reversal” (citation omitted)).

We have also independently reviewed the record and conclude that no other non-frivolous issues exist. See Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75, 82–83 (1988). We accordingly affirm the judgment of the district court and grant counsel permission to withdraw.

¹The Honorable Rebecca Goodgame Ebinger, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Iowa.
