claims and a jury returned a verdict in favor of his former employer on his remaining claims. Shaik failed to present the district court with the arguments he now presses on appeal and has thus failed to preserve them for our review. *See Wiser v. Seeing no reason to reach Shaik's unpreserved arguments, see id. at 926-27 (discussing the circumstances, not present here, under which we might address such arguments), we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
