

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 24-1977

Jamila Reeves

Plaintiff - Appellant

v.

Carolyn W. Colvin,¹ Acting Commissioner, Social Security Administration

Defendant - Appellee

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Jefferson City

Submitted: January 8, 2025

Filed: January 14, 2025

[Unpublished]

Before LOKEN, KELLY, and ERICKSON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

¹Carolyn Colvin has been appointed to serve as Acting Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, and is substituted as appellee pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 43(c).

Jamila Reeves appeals the district court's² order dismissing as untimely her civil action for review of the denial of social security benefits. Upon careful review, we conclude that the action was untimely because Reeves commenced it beyond the 60-day filing deadline in 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). See Bess v. Barnhart, 337 F.3d 988, 989 (8th Cir. 2003) (per curiam). We also conclude that she is not entitled to equitable tolling of the deadline because she failed to explain how any of her health conditions prevented her from timely filing the action. See Thompson v. Comm'r of SSA, 919 F.3d 1033, 1036-38 (8th Cir. 2019).

Accordingly, we affirm.

²The Honorable Roseann A. Ketchmark, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.
