

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 25-1856

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Luis Eduardo Pineda-Zarao

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Kansas City

Submitted: May 6, 2026

Filed: May 11, 2026

[Unpublished]

Before GRUENDER, GRASZ, and STRAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Luis Pineda-Zarao appeals a condition of supervised release imposed by the district court¹ after a jury found him guilty of a drug offense. He argues the district court plainly erred by imposing a special condition related to substance abuse testing, because the condition is overbroad and he has no documented substance abuse.

Upon careful review, we find no reversible plain error. See United States v. Jackson, 33 F.4th 523, 528 (8th Cir. 2022) (per curiam) (standard of review); see also United States v. Poitra, 648 F.3d 884, 892 (8th Cir. 2011) (relief under plain-error review is exceptional remedy to be used sparingly and only when justice so requires). Accordingly, we affirm.
