withdraw, and has filed a brief challenging the substantive reasonableness of the revocation sentence.

Upon careful review, we conclude that the sentence was not unreasonable, as there is no indication that the district court overlooked a relevant factor, gave significant weight to an improper or irrelevant factor, or committed a clear error of judgment in weighing the relevant factors, see United States v. Miller, 557 F.3d 910, 917 (8th Cir. 2009) (substantive reasonableness of revocation sentence is reviewed under deferential abuse-of-discretion standard), and the sentence was below the statutory limit, see 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3).

Accordingly, we grant counsel's motion to withdraw, and affirm.
