

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 26-1124

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Angela Williams, also known as Angela Boston

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri - St. Louis

Submitted: June 2, 2026

Filed: June 8, 2026

[Unpublished]

Before BENTON, GRASZ, and STRAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Angela Williams received a 10-month sentence after she pleaded guilty to identity theft. See 18 U.S.C. § 1028(a)(7), (b)(2)(B). An Anders brief suggests the district court¹ imposed a substantively unreasonable sentence. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).

Upon careful review, we conclude that an enforceable appeal waiver covers this issue. See United States v. Scott, 627 F.3d 702, 704 (8th Cir. 2010) (reviewing the validity of an appeal waiver de novo); United States v. Andis, 333 F.3d 886, 889–92 (8th Cir. 2003) (en banc) (explaining that an appeal waiver will be enforced if the appeal falls within its scope, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily entered into the plea agreement and the waiver, and enforcing the waiver would not result in a miscarriage of justice). We have also independently reviewed the record and conclude that no other nonfrivolous issues exist. See Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75, 82–83 (1988). We accordingly dismiss the appeal and grant counsel permission to withdraw.

¹The Honorable Zachary M. Bluestone, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri.
