

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 25-3385

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Federico Luna

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa - Cedar Rapids

Submitted: June 26, 2026

Filed: July 1, 2026

[Unpublished]

Before LOKEN, KELLY, and KOBES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Federico Luna appeals after the district court¹ revoked his supervised release and sentenced him to 24 months in prison followed by 12 months of supervised release. His counsel has moved for leave to withdraw and has filed a brief challenging the substantive reasonableness of the revocation sentence.

Upon careful review, we conclude that Luna's within-Guidelines-range sentence was not unreasonable, as there is no indication the district court overlooked a relevant factor, gave significant weight to an improper or irrelevant factor, or committed a clear error of judgment in weighing the relevant factors. See United States v. Phillips, 785 F.3d 282, 284 (8th Cir. 2015) (reviewing substantive reasonableness of revocation sentence for abuse of discretion; on appeal, revocation sentence within Guidelines range is presumptively reasonable).

Accordingly, we grant counsel leave to withdraw, and affirm.
