

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 25-2131

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Lynell E. Noble

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the District of Nebraska - Omaha

Submitted: July 23, 2026

Filed: October 5, 2026

[Unpublished]

Before GRUENDER, SHEPHERD, and JUSTIN D. SMITH, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Lynell Noble appeals after he pled guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm pursuant to a conditional plea agreement that preserved his right to appeal the district court's¹ order denying his motion to dismiss the indictment. On appeal, he challenges the constitutionality of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1).

Upon careful review, we conclude Noble's arguments as to the constitutionality of section 922(g)(1) are foreclosed by circuit precedent. See United States v. Eagle Chasing, 965 F.3d 647, 650 (8th Cir. 2020) (standard of review); United States v. Yielding, 657 F.3d 688, 702 (8th Cir. 2011) (same); United States v. Cunningham, 114 F.4th 671, 675 (8th Cir. 2024) (holding that § 922(g)(1) is facially constitutional); United States v. Jackson, 110 F.4th 1120, 1125-29 (8th Cir. 2024) (rejecting as-applied challenge to § 922(g)(1)).

Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court.

¹The Honorable Brian C. Buescher, United States District Judge for the District of Nebraska, now Chief Judge.
